IAS/IPS Offiners in Maharashtra and Assam

755. SHRIMATI BASANTI SARMA:

DR. SHRIKANT RAMCHANDRA JICHKAR:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) what is the total number of IAS and IPS officers in the country as on 1st March, 1995;

(b) how many of these officers are working in Maharashtra and how many in Assam;

(c) what is the reason for not taking of Maharashtra and Assam IAS and IPS officers on deputation to the Central Government; and

(d) what is the policy of Government with respect to deputation?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SMT. MARGARET ALVA): (a) As per the information available 4947 IAS Officers and 2903 IPS Officers were in position as on 1.3.1995.

(b) There were 348 and 201 IAS and 189 and 123 IPS Officers in position as on 1.3.1995 in Maharashtra and Joint Cadre of Assam-Meghalaya respectively.

(c) The representation of IAS and IPS Officers are as below:—

	Maharashtra	Joint Cadre of Assam-Meghalaya
IAS	53	43
IPS	28	36

This reflects equitable representation of officers from these cadres at the Centre.

(d) Under the IAS and IPS Cadre Rules there is a Central Deputation Reserve of 40 percent of the senior duty posts under each State Government. Deputation of IAS/IPS Officers to the Centre are for a specific period and on completion of tenure, the officers revert to their parent cadres.

Central Administrative Tribunals

75. SHRI VIREN J. SHAH:

SHRI PRAMOD MAHAJAN:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) what are the details of Central Administrative Tribunals and since when each of these Tribunals has been functioning;

(b) what is the composition of each of these Tribunals;

(c) what is the criteria for the appointment of chairman and members of these Tribunals, what are the qualifications prescribed for their appointment, terms and conditions of their service;

(d) whether there have been instances when persons not possessing the requisite qualifications and background were appointed as members; if so, what are the details of each such appointment and the reasons therefor;

(e) how many vacancies at present exist in each of these Tribunals and since when and by which date these vacancies are likely to be filled up;

(f) what was the backlog of pending cases with each of these Tribunals on December 31, 1994 and how many of these cases have been pending for more than three and five years;